

Contents

Online Version of This Treatise	v
---	---

What Your Library Should Contain	vi
--	----

Chapter 1 First Considerations

1.1 What Is “UDAP”?	1
1.2 Nature and Strengths of UDAP Statutes	1
1.3 About This Treatise	2
1.3.1 Print and Online Versions	2
1.3.2 Scope and Organization of This Treatise	2
1.3.3 Pleadings and Primary Sources	3
1.3.4 Unreported Decisions and Clearinghouse Citations	3
1.4 Companion Volume; Other NCLC Resources	3
1.4.1 Federal Deception Law As a Companion Volume	3
1.4.2 Other NCLC Treatises and Resources	4
1.5 General Preparation for UDAP Clients	4
1.6 Determining Whether There Is a UDAP Approach to the Client’s Problem	6
1.6.1 Transactions Amenable to a UDAP Approach	6
1.6.2 Look at All Aspects of a Transaction	7
1.6.3 Apply UDAP Standards Expansively	7
1.7 Alternatives to a UDAP Action	7
1.8 Determining Whether a UDAP Claim Should Be Pursued	8

Chapter 2 UDAP Scope

2.1 General Principles	9
2.1.1 Determining a UDAP Statute’s Scope	9
2.1.2 Burden of Proof; Waiver	10
2.1.3 Liberal Construction of UDAP Scope Sections	10
2.1.4 Interpretations of “Trade or Commerce”	11
2.1.5 Interpretations of “Goods”	14
2.1.6 Interpretations of “Merchandise”	14
2.1.7 Interpretations of “Services”	15
2.1.8 Interpretations of “Personal, Family, or Household Use”	17
2.1.8.1 General	17
2.1.8.2 Is the Test Objective or Subjective?	17
2.1.8.3 Mixed Transactions	18
2.1.8.4 Interpretations Unique to Particular States	18
2.1.8.5 Listing of Consumer Transactions	19
2.1.8.6 Transactions Not Found to Be for Consumer Purposes	19
2.1.8.7 Texas Case Law Defining “Consumer Transaction”: “Consumer” Not Limited to “Personal, Family, or Household Purposes”	20
2.1.9 UDAP Liability Where Party Outside UDAP Statute’s Scope	22
2.2 Exempted Transactions	22
2.2.1 Credit	22
2.2.1.1 General; Credit Is in “Trade or Commerce”	22
2.2.1.2 Does a Credit Transaction Involve “Goods or Services”?	23
2.2.1.3 Services in Connection with a Loan or Banking Are “Goods or Services”	25
2.2.1.4 Specific Statutory Exemptions for Certain Creditors or Transactions	26

2.2.1.5	Does Other Legislation Occupy the Field of Credit Regulation?	28
2.2.1.5.1	FTC Act.	28
2.2.1.5.2	Federal and state banking laws	28
2.2.1.5.3	State law exemptions for matters regulated by or in compliance with Truth in Lending Act or other federal statutes	29
2.2.1.6	Derivative Liability Under FTC Holder Rule Regardless of UDAP Statute’s Coverage.	30
2.2.1.7	State-by-State Survey of Coverage of Credit Transactions and Creditors.	30
2.2.2	Debt Collection	41
2.2.2.1	Factors Determining Coverage.	41
2.2.2.1.1	Statutes that apply to trade or commerce	41
2.2.2.1.2	Statutes that apply to goods, services, or merchandise; “in connection with”	41
2.2.2.1.3	Statutes that apply to “suppliers”	42
2.2.2.1.4	Privity-type issues.	43
2.2.2.1.5	Preemption, displacement by other law, and other exemptions	43
2.2.2.2	State-by-State Survey of Coverage of Debt Collection	44
2.2.3	Other Post-Sale Activities	51
2.2.3.1	General	51
2.2.3.2	Repossession	52
2.2.3.3	Mortgage Servicing	53
2.2.4	Where There Is No “Purchase”	55
2.2.4.1	Solicitations and Unconsummated Offers	55
2.2.4.2	Refusal to Contract.	56
2.2.4.3	Where Purchase Is Not from UDAP Defendant.	56
2.2.4.4	Barter and Lease Transactions	58
2.2.4.5	Transactions That Are Void on Other Grounds	58
2.2.4.6	Where Goods or Services Are Provided Without Charge	58
2.2.4.7	Goods or Services Not Requested by the Consumer	59
2.2.4.8	Where Someone Other Than Consumer Pays	59
2.2.4.9	Collection of Subrogated Claims	60
2.2.4.10	Mistaken Identity and Identity Theft	61
2.2.4.11	Misappropriation and Theft	61
2.2.4.12	Charitable Solicitations and Sweepstakes	62
2.2.4.13	Tort-Like Claims	62
2.2.4.14	Other Non-Sale Transactions	62
2.2.4.15	Where Plaintiff Is the Seller Rather Than the Buyer	64
2.2.5	Real Property and Manufactured Homes	65
2.2.5.1	Are Real Estate Sales Covered?	65
2.2.5.1.1	Real estate sales involve “trade or commerce,” “property,” and “merchandise”; exemptions for brokers	65
2.2.5.1.2	Does real estate sale involve “goods or services”?	66
2.2.5.1.3	Isolated sale of real estate by owner	68
2.2.5.1.4	Special consideration for manufactured home sales.	70
2.2.5.2	Services, Construction Work, Personality Related to Real Estate Are Covered	70
2.2.6	Residential Leases; Manufactured Home Communities; Migrant Farmworker Camps	71
2.2.6.1	General Coverage.	71
2.2.6.2	Does Other State Regulation of Landlord-Tenant Relations Displace UDAP Coverage?	73
2.2.6.3	UDAP Coverage Where Building Is Owner Occupied	73
2.2.6.4	Migrant Farmworker Camps	73
2.2.7	Membership Campgrounds and Timeshares	73
2.2.8	Pyramid Sales, Franchises, Securities, Business Opportunities.	74
2.2.8.1	Pyramid Sales.	74

2.2.8.2	Franchises and Other Investments	74
2.2.8.3	Securities Transactions	75
2.2.8.4	Work-at-Home Schemes and Other Personal Business Opportunities	78
2.2.9	Employer-Employee and Internal Business Disputes	79
2.2.10	Personal Injury Suits	82
2.2.11	Out-of-State Residents; Out-of-State Transactions	83
2.2.11.1	Introduction	83
2.2.11.2	Out-of-State Residents	83
2.2.11.3	Transactions That Occur in Whole or in Part in Another State	85
2.2.11.3.1	Statutory sources for limits on territorial reach	85
2.2.11.3.2	What level of in-state activity is sufficient	87
2.2.12	The Texas Exemption for Large Transactions	89
2.3	Exempted Sellers	89
2.3.1	Insurance Companies	89
2.3.1.1	Do the UDAP Statute’s General Scope Provisions Extend to Insurance Practices?	89
2.3.1.2	Statutory Exemptions for Insurance Companies	90
2.3.1.2.1	Specific exemptions for insurers or insurance practices	90
2.3.1.2.2	Effect of an exemption for regulated or permitted practices	91
2.3.1.3	State Insurance Code Displacement of UDAP Applicability	92
2.3.1.4	The Filed Rate Doctrine and Primary Jurisdiction	94
2.3.1.5	State-by-State Survey of Coverage of Insurance Transactions	94
2.3.2	Utilities	100
2.3.2.1	Issues in UDAP Coverage of Utilities	100
2.3.2.2	State-by-State Survey of Coverage of Utilities	102
2.3.3	Regulated Industries	107
2.3.3.1	Determining Whether Other State Regulation Bars a UDAP Action	107
2.3.3.2	UDAP Statutes Exempting Specific Regulated Entities or All “Regulated Practices”	108
2.3.3.3	UDAP Statutes Exempting “Practices Permitted by Law”	110
2.3.3.3.1	Mainstream precedent	110
2.3.3.3.2	Minority of courts confuse regulated with permitted	113
2.3.3.4	Are Permitted Practices Exempt Even Without an Explicit Statutory Exclusion?	117
2.3.3.5	State Law Displacement of UDAP Coverage	118
2.3.3.5.1	Introduction	118
2.3.3.5.2	Impact of explicit statutory language on statute’s cumulative or exclusive effect	119
2.3.3.5.3	Jurisdictions that reject displacement	120
2.3.3.5.4	Other jurisdictions adopt a balancing approach	121
2.3.3.5.5	Whichever approach is adopted, most UDAP claims are not displaced by other state regulation	122
2.3.3.6	Exhaustion of Administrative Remedies	122
2.3.3.6.1	Must consumer exhaust administrative remedies?	122
2.3.3.6.2	The doctrine of primary jurisdiction	123
2.3.4	Nonmerchant Sellers and Isolated Occurrences	125
2.3.5	Nonprofit Organizations and Schools	127
2.3.5.1	Nonprofit Organizations	127
2.3.5.2	Schools	129
2.3.6	Government and Quasi-Government Agencies As Sellers	129
2.3.7	Printers and the Media	131
2.3.8	Wholesalers and Other Indirect Parties	132
2.3.9	Lawyers	135
2.3.9.1	Application of UDAP Statutes’ General Scope Provisions	135
2.3.9.2	Explicit Statutory Exemptions	137
2.3.9.3	Effect of Other Regulation of Attorneys	138
2.3.9.4	Any Exemption Is Limited to the Practice of Law	138
2.3.9.5	Other Limits on Application of UDAP Statutes to Attorneys	138

2.3.10	Medical Professionals	139
2.3.10.1	Application of General UDAP Scope Provisions; Distinction Between Entrepreneurial and Professional Activities	139
2.3.10.2	Explicit Statutory Exemptions	140
2.3.10.3	Dentists	141
2.3.10.4	Hospitals, Nursing Homes, Laboratories, Medical Supplies	142
2.3.10.5	Effect of State Procedural Requirements for Malpractice Claims	142
2.3.11	Other Professionals	142
2.4	Persons Excluded from UDAP Protections	144
2.4.1	Recipients of Insurance Payments; Third-Party Beneficiaries; Donees; Assignees	144
2.4.1.1	Introduction	144
2.4.1.2	Recipients of Insurance Payments	144
2.4.1.3	Donees	145
2.4.1.4	Third-Party Beneficiaries	145
2.4.1.5	Assignees of Consumers' Claims; Third-Party Payors	146
2.4.1.6	Other Third Parties	147
2.4.2	Where Consumer Is Now Deceased	147
2.4.3	Loan Guarantors	148
2.4.4	Out-of-State Residents	148
2.4.5	Merchants; Corporations; Government Entities	150
2.4.5.1	Seller's Attempt to Treat Consumer As a Commercial Entity	150
2.4.5.2	Can Businesses Bring UDAP Actions?	150
2.4.5.2.1	Analytical framework	150
2.4.5.2.2	State-specific decisions	153
2.4.5.2.3	UDAP statutes' other restrictions on suits by businesses	157
2.4.5.2.4	Implied and alternate remedies for businesses	158
2.4.5.3	Can Government Entities Bring UDAP Claims?	158
2.4.6	Investigators	159
2.5	Conflict with the FTC Act and Other Federal Law	160
2.5.1	General Principles of Federal Preemption	160
2.5.2	The FTC Act	161
2.5.3	Federal Banking and Credit Disclosure Laws	162
2.5.3.1	Types of Federal Banking Laws That Affect State Laws; Effect of Dodd-Frank Act	162
2.5.3.2	National Bank Act	162
2.5.3.2.1	Rate exportation and complete preemption of usury claims against national banks	162
2.5.3.2.2	Preemption of state non-usury laws that prevent or significantly interfere with a national bank's exercise of its powers	163
2.5.3.2.3	The extent to which state UDAP statutes are preempted	163
2.5.3.3	Regulation of Federal Savings Associations	166
2.5.3.3.1	Overview	166
2.5.3.3.2	Structure of OTS's pre-2011 preemption regulation	167
2.5.3.3.3	No general preemption of UDAP claims under former OTS regulations	167
2.5.3.3.4	UDAP claims based on contract	168
2.5.3.3.5	UDAP claims based on misrepresentation or deception	168
2.5.3.3.6	UDAP claims that impose substantive standards	170
2.5.3.3.7	UDAP claims based on violation of federal law	171
2.5.3.3.8	Effect on subsidiaries	171
2.5.3.3.9	Effect of merger of federal savings association with national bank	171
2.5.3.4	Alternative Mortgage Transactions Parity Act	172
2.5.3.5	Preemption Issues for State-Chartered FDIC-Insured Banks and Other State Lenders	172
2.5.3.6	Federal Credit Unions	172
2.5.3.7	Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act	173

2.5.3.8	Truth in Lending Act	173
2.5.3.9	Other Federal Banking and Lending Laws	174
2.5.4	Federal Vehicle, Boat, and Manufactured Home Standards	174
2.5.5	Federal Transportation and Shipping Laws	175
2.5.5.1	Carmack Amendment	175
2.5.5.2	Interstate Commerce Act	176
2.5.5.3	Federal Air Transportation Laws	176
2.5.5.4	Other Federal Transportation and Shipping Laws	177
2.5.6	Federal Communications Laws	177
2.5.7	Federal Securities and Commerce Laws	178
2.5.8	Federal Health Laws	180
2.5.8.1	The Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act of 2010 and Other Federal Healthcare Laws	180
2.5.8.2	Medicare	181
2.5.8.3	Government Employee Health Insurance Laws	181
2.5.8.4	Medical Devices	181
2.5.8.5	Medications, Cosmetics, and Nutritional Supplements	182
2.5.9	Food Labeling	183
2.5.9.1	Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act	183
2.5.9.1.1	Express preemption	183
2.5.9.1.2	Implied preemption	184
2.5.9.1.3	UDAP claims based on violation of FDA requirements; the FDA's exclusive enforcement authority and POM Wonderful	185
2.5.9.1.4	Referral to FDA's primary jurisdiction	186
2.5.9.2	Meat and Poultry Labels	186
2.5.9.3	Use of Term "Organic"	186
2.5.10	ERISA	187
2.5.10.1	General	187
2.5.10.2	Does State Insurance Regulation Trump ERISA Preemption?	188
2.5.10.3	Claims Outside of the Scope of ERISA	190
2.5.11	Federal Tobacco Regulation	190
2.5.12	Bankruptcy Code	191
2.5.13	Other Federal Statutes	191

Chapter 3 Demonstrating That a Practice Is a UDAP Violation

3.1	Getting Started	193
3.1.1	How to Use This Treatise to Prove a Violation	193
3.1.2	Expansive, Liberal Application of UDAP Statutes	193
3.2	Per Se Violations	195
3.2.1	Pleading Per Se Violations	195
3.2.2	Per Se Violations Enumerated in the UDAP Statute or UDAP Regulation	196
3.2.2.1	Most UDAP Statutes Prohibit Specific Enumerated Practices	196
3.2.2.2	Per Se Violations of State UDAP Regulations	196
3.2.3	Practices Outside Specific UDAP Prohibitions Can Still Be UDAP Violations	197
3.2.4	Finding of Common Law Fraud Necessitates Finding a UDAP Violation	197
3.2.5	UDTPA Violations As Per Se UDAP Violations	198
3.2.6	Violation of FTC Act, Other Statute Where that Statute Provides that a Violation Is Unfair or Deceptive	198
3.2.7	Violations of Other State, Federal Laws as Per Se UDAP Violations	199
3.2.7.1	Importance of Finding Violations of Other Laws Per Se UDAP Violations	199
3.2.7.2	UDAP Scope Issues May Limit Applicability of Per Se Approach	199
3.2.7.3	Precedent Finding Violations of Other Laws to Be Per Se UDAP Violations	200
3.2.7.3.1	California, the District of Columbia, and Nevada UDAP statutes explicitly adopt and Texas UDAP statute explicitly rejects per se approach	200

3.2.7.3.2	Illinois UDAP statute has unique treatment for violation of credit statutes.	201
3.2.7.3.3	State UDAP regulations finding statutory violations to be per se UDAP violations.	201
3.2.7.3.4	Courts may determine that statutory violations are per se UDAP violations.	202
3.2.7.3.5	Courts that reject the per se approach.	203
3.2.7.3.6	Examples of statutory violations found to be per se UDAP violations.	204
3.2.7.4	Arguing That a Statutory Violation Is a Per Se UDAP Violation	207
3.2.7.4.1	Violation of another statute as an unfair practice	207
3.2.7.4.2	Violation of another statute as deceptive practice.	208
3.2.7.4.3	Alleging both a per se violation and an unfair or deceptive practice in its own right.	208
3.3	Proving UDAP Claims Without Per Se Violations	209
3.3.1	Introduction.	209
3.3.2	Develop the Facts	209
3.3.3	Practice-Specific Precedent.	209
3.3.4	Point Out Breadth and Flexibility of General UDAP Standards.	210
3.4	Sources of UDAP Precedent and Guidelines	210
3.4.1	The Statute	210
3.4.2	Legislative History; Model Statutes	211
3.4.2.1	General	211
3.4.2.2	Unfair Trade Practices and Consumer Protection Law	211
3.4.2.3	Uniform Consumer Sales Practices Act	211
3.4.2.4	Uniform Deceptive Trade Practices Act	212
3.4.2.5	Consumer Fraud Acts and Other Models	212
3.4.3	State UDAP Case Law	212
3.4.3.1	Keeping Up with In-State UDAP Cases	212
3.4.3.2	Other States' UDAP Case Law	213
3.4.4	State UDAP Regulations.	213
3.4.4.1	Finding UDAP Regulations and Related Authority.	213
3.4.4.2	Authority and Procedure to Enact Regulations	213
3.4.4.3	Precedential Effect of UDAP Regulations	214
3.4.5	FTC Cases, Other Guidelines	214
3.4.5.1	FTC Cases, Other Guidelines Are Important Sources of UDAP Precedent	214
3.4.5.2	Types of FTC Cases.	216
3.4.5.3	Precedential Value of FTC Consent Agreements	216
3.4.5.4	Comparing the FTC Act and the State UDAP Statutes	217
3.4.5.5	Researching FTC Case Law	217
3.4.5.6	FTC Trade Regulation Rules, Guides, and Other Statements	218
3.4.6	CFPB Rules.	220

Chapter 4 The Meaning of Deception, Unfairness, and Unconscionability

4.1	Introduction.	221
4.2	Deception, Statutory Fraud	221
4.2.1	Per Se Deception	221
4.2.2	Relationship of Deception to Unfairness, Unconscionability	221
4.2.3	Comparison of Deception with Fraud, Misleading Practices.	222
4.2.3.1	Comparison with Common Law Fraud	222
4.2.3.2	Statutory Fraud; Misleading Practices	223
4.2.4	Intent Unnecessary.	224
4.2.4.1	Intent Generally Not Required	224
4.2.4.2	Where Statute Explicitly Requires Proof of Intent.	226

4.2.5	Knowledge Unnecessary	227
4.2.5.1	Knowledge Generally Not Required	227
4.2.5.2	Where Proof of Seller’s Knowledge Is Required	229
4.2.6	Despite Good Faith Efforts	230
4.2.7	Despite Cessation of Practice	230
4.2.8	Despite Industrywide Practice	231
4.2.9	Actual Deception Unnecessary; Likelihood or Capacity for Deception Sufficient	231
4.2.10	Puffing As a Defense	234
4.2.11	Vulnerable Consumers Specially Considered; the Reasonable Consumer Standard	236
4.2.11.1	The FTC Standard	236
4.2.11.2	State UDAP Case Law	237
4.2.12	Materiality May Be Presumed and Reliance Is Unnecessary	239
4.2.12.1	Introduction	239
4.2.12.2	The FTC Standard	239
4.2.12.3	State UDAP Case Law	240
4.2.12.3.1	Proof of reliance generally not required	240
4.2.12.3.2	Small minority require reliance	244
4.2.12.3.3	No reliance required in nondisclosure or mis-disclosure cases	246
4.2.12.3.4	No reliance required for claims not based on deception or in cases seeking injunctive relief	246
4.2.12.3.5	Where reliance required, it need not be reasonable reliance	247
4.2.12.3.6	A third party’s reliance may be sufficient	247
4.2.12.3.7	Presumption of reliance where misrepresentations are material.	247
4.2.12.3.8	Unrealistically specific allegations of reliance unnecessary.	248
4.2.12.4	Requirement That Representation Be Material	248
4.2.12.5	Relationship of Reliance to Causation	249
4.2.13	Literally True Statements, Partial Truths; Overall Net Impression	251
4.2.14	Conduct and Pictures	254
4.2.15	Failure to Disclose	254
4.2.15.1	Overview	254
4.2.15.2	The FTC Standard	255
4.2.15.3	State UDAP Precedent	256
4.2.15.3.1	General standards	256
4.2.15.3.2	State regulations	258
4.2.15.3.3	Special duty to disclose for fiduciaries	258
4.2.15.3.4	Must the nondisclosure be knowing?	259
4.2.15.3.5	Must the seller intend that others rely on the omission?	260
4.2.15.3.6	Must the seller have an independent duty of disclosure?	260
4.2.15.3.7	Must the consumer investigate?	261
4.2.15.3.8	Specific nondisclosure holdings	261
4.2.15.3.9	Disclosures in online transactions.	265
4.2.15.3.10	Electronic disclosures	267
4.2.16	Subsequent Clarification Does Not Prevent Deception	268
4.2.16.1	Subsequent Disclosures Cannot Correct Earlier Deceptive Claims	268
4.2.16.2	Subsequent Consumer Conduct or Other Occurrence Cannot Cure Deception	269
4.2.16.3	The Georgia Exception.	270
4.2.17	Immediate Customer’s Deception Unnecessary	270
4.2.18	Deceptive Statements Need Not Be Advertised to the Public	271
4.2.19	Money-Back Guarantee Does Not Sanitize Fraud	272
4.2.20	Contract Defenses Do Not Apply to UDAP Cases	272
4.2.20.1	Deception Is Not Based on Breach of Contract	272
4.2.20.2	Parol Evidence Rule	273
4.2.20.3	Privity of Contract	274
4.2.20.4	Disclaimers, Merger Clauses, Limitations on Liability or Remedies, and Other Contract Clauses.	277
4.2.20.5	Voluntary Payment Doctrine	281

4.2.20.6	Post-Transaction Waivers	283
4.2.20.7	Other Contract Defenses	283
4.2.21	Tort Defenses Do Not Apply to Deception Claim	284
4.2.21.1	Contributory Negligence or Lack of Care by the Consumer	284
4.2.21.2	Economic Loss Rule Generally Does Not Apply to UDAP Claims	285
4.2.21.3	Unclean Hands	287
4.2.21.4	Other Tort Defenses	287
4.3	Unfairness	288
4.3.1	General	288
4.3.2	The Current FTC Unfairness Standard	288
4.3.2.1	Standard Enacted by Congress in 1994	288
4.3.2.2	Substantial Consumer Injury	289
4.3.2.3	Injury That Consumer Cannot Reasonably Avoid	290
4.3.2.3.1	Introduction	290
4.3.2.3.2	Analysis based on the reasonable consumer, not the perfect consumer	291
4.3.2.3.3	The relevance of the doctrine of unconscionability	291
4.3.2.3.4	Consumers have limited ability to avoid harm caused by standardized contract terms	292
4.3.2.3.5	Market forces can leave consumers with no meaningful choice	292
4.3.2.3.6	Deception or ambiguity at the time of contract formation	293
4.3.2.3.7	Consumers cannot reasonably avoid injury that results from unpredictable or involuntary events	294
4.3.2.3.8	Consumers cannot reasonably avoid harm that they have no reason to anticipate	294
4.3.2.3.9	Consumers cannot reasonably avoid acts undertaken without their consent	295
4.3.2.3.10	Steps that mitigate harm that has already occurred do not make the injury reasonably avoidable	296
4.3.2.3.11	Consumers cannot avoid abuses that occur after they have entered into the contract	296
4.3.2.3.12	When a market does not correct itself, consumers cannot readily avoid injury	297
4.3.2.3.13	Harm is not reasonably avoidable if it would be expensive or impractical to avoid it	297
4.3.2.4	Injury Not Outweighed by the Benefits to Consumers or Competition	297
4.3.2.5	Relation to Public Policy	298
4.3.3	Unfairness Standards Under State UDAP Statutes	298
4.3.3.1	Unfairness Broader Than Deception	298
4.3.3.2	Precedential Effect of Congress' 1994 Definition of Unfairness in Interpreting State UDAP Statutes	299
4.3.3.3	The "S&H" Standard	300
4.3.3.3.1	Description of the "S&H" standard	300
4.3.3.3.2	Differences between the "S&H" and the current FTC standard	300
4.3.3.4	State UDAP Use of "S&H" Unfairness Definition in Lieu of the Current FTC Definition	301
4.3.3.5	Alternative State Definitions	303
4.3.4	Application of Unfairness to Adhesion Contracts	305
4.3.4.1	FTC Credit Practices Rule	305
4.3.4.2	Other Precedent	305
4.3.5	Systematic Breach of Contract As Unfair	306
4.3.6	Coercive High-Pressure Sales and Collection Tactics	307
4.3.7	Taking Advantage of Disparate Knowledge	307
4.3.8	Taking Advantage of a Vulnerable Group	308
4.3.9	Illegal Conduct	308
4.3.10	Misuse of Special Status	310

4.3.11	Taking Advantage of an Emergency Situation	310
4.3.11.1	Price Gouging in an Emergency As an Unfair Practice	310
4.3.11.2	State Price Gouging Statutes	311
4.3.11.3	Practical Tips	311
4.3.12	Unconscionable Practices As Unfair Practices	311
4.4	Unconscionability	312
4.4.1	Importance of Unconscionability Standard	312
4.4.2	Definitions of Unconscionability in UDAP Statutes and Regulations	312
4.4.3	UDAP Case Law Defining Unconscionability	314
4.4.4	Taking Advantage of Vulnerable Consumers	314
4.4.5	Price Unconscionability	315
4.4.6	Unconscionable Performance Practices	316
4.4.7	Unconscionable Collection and Enforcement Practices	317
4.4.8	Other UDAP Unconscionability Decisions	317
4.4.9	Other Sources of Unconscionability Precedent	318
4.4.9.1	General	318
4.4.9.2	Specific UCC, UCCC, and Common Law Unconscionability Findings	319

Chapter 5 General Sales and Performance Practices

5.1	Introduction	321
5.2	Unsubstantiated Claims	321
5.2.1	General	321
5.2.2	FTC Standards	321
5.2.3	State UDAP Precedent	322
5.3	Deceptive Pricing Inducements	323
5.3.1	Bait and Switch	323
5.3.2	Unavailability of Advertised Items	325
5.3.3	Deceptive Bargain Sales	326
5.3.3.1	Phony Distress, Wholesale, and Defective Merchandise Sales	326
5.3.3.2	Deceptive Pricing in Comparison to a Reference Price	326
5.3.3.3	Deceptive Rebate Offers	328
5.3.4	Price Padding and Hidden Fees; Price Transparency	329
5.3.5	Other Deceptive Pricing Techniques	329
5.3.6	Use of the Word “Free”	330
5.3.7	Low Balling; Charging Higher Prices Than Agreed Upon	330
5.3.8	Consumer Specially Selected or Contest Winner	331
5.3.9	Conditions or Limitations on Offers	332
5.4	General Misrepresentations Regarding Product and Seller	333
5.4.1	Product Characteristics, Uses and Benefits	333
5.4.2	Product Uniqueness	334
5.4.3	Product Quality, Composition, Model, and Identity	334
5.4.4	Product Safety	335
5.4.5	Product Quantity and Size; Packaging	335
5.4.6	Product’s Method of Manufacture	336
5.4.7	Product’s Geographic Origin	336
5.4.8	Seller’s and Product’s Approval, Affiliation, and Endorsement	336
5.4.8.1	Approval or Affiliation	336
5.4.8.2	Unlicensed or Unregistered Sellers; Fictitious Names	338
5.4.8.3	Endorsements and Testimonials	339
5.4.9	Manufacturer’s and Seller’s Status	340
5.4.10	Passing Off; Trademarks	341
5.4.11	Disparaging Competitors	341
5.5	High-Pressure, Coercive, or Intrusive Sales Techniques	342
5.5.1	UDAP Precedent	342
5.5.2	High-Pressure Sales As Unfair Practices	343

5.5.3	Referral Sales	343
5.5.4	Unordered Merchandise	344
5.5.5	Negative Option Sales and Automatic Renewal Provisions	344
5.5.6	Door-to-Door Sales, Junk Faxes, Telemarketing, and Spam	344
5.6	Contracts, Warranties, and Legal Rights	344
5.6.1	Contract Language for Non-English Speaking Consumers	344
5.6.2	Plain English Contract Language	344
5.6.3	Unfair and Unenforceable Adhesion Contract Terms	345
5.6.3.1	FTC Credit Practices Rule Sets Out Theory for Unfair Standard Form Contract Terms	345
5.6.3.2	Other FTC Precedent	346
5.6.3.3	Illegal or Unenforceable Contract Terms As an Unfair and Deceptive Practice	346
5.6.3.4	Other State Precedent on Adhesion Contracts	346
5.6.4	Contractual Misrepresentations	347
5.6.4.1	Deception Concerning the Nature of the Document Being Signed	347
5.6.4.2	Oral Representations Inconsistent with the Contract	348
5.6.5	Breaches of Contract	348
5.6.5.1	Mere Breach of Contract May Not Be UDAP Violation	348
5.6.5.2	Systematic Breach of Many Consumer Contracts As UDAP Violation	350
5.6.5.3	Unfairness, Deception, or Other Aggravating Circumstances Accompanying the Contract Breach	350
5.6.5.4	Seller's Refusal to Rectify Breach of Contract	351
5.6.5.5	Unequal Relationship of the Parties	352
5.6.6	Refunds and Cancellation Rights	352
5.6.7	Guarantees, Warranties, and Service Contracts	354
5.6.7.1	Breach of Warranty As UDAP Violation	354
5.6.7.1.1	Advantages of UDAP claims in breach of warranty cases	354
5.6.7.1.2	Warranty breach as per se UDAP violation	354
5.6.7.1.3	Aggravating circumstances can turn breach of warranty into UDAP violation	356
5.6.7.1.4	Magnuson-Moss breach of warranty violation as a per se UDAP violation	357
5.6.7.2	Service Contracts	357
5.6.7.2.1	Duplication of warranty rights	357
5.6.7.2.2	Deceptive marketing techniques	357
5.6.7.2.3	Failure to pay consumer claims under the service contract	358
5.6.7.3	Misrepresentations Concerning the Status of a Guarantee	358
5.6.7.3.1	General	358
5.6.7.3.2	Thirty-day, "50-50" warranties	360
5.6.8	Other Misrepresentations of Legal Rights and Requirements; Misrepresentation of Law vs. Fact	360
5.6.9	Merchant's Slow Payment on Judgment Owed Consumer	361
5.6.10	Holder's Refusal to Accept Liability Under FTC Holder Rule	362
5.7	Deceptive Performance Practices	362
5.7.1	Layaway Plans; Other Deposits	362
5.7.2	Delay and Nondelivery	363
5.7.3	Damaged and Defective Goods	364
5.7.4	Used As New; Prior Use	364
5.7.5	Substitution of Displayed Products	365
5.7.6	Repair Practices	365
5.7.7	Deceptive Billing Practices	367
5.8	Application of UDAP Statutes to Anti-Competitive Conduct	369
5.8.1	Introduction	369
5.8.2	Can Indirect Purchasers Recover Under State UDAP Statutes?	369
5.8.3	Does the UDAP Statute Prohibit Anti-Competitive Conduct?	371
5.9	Invasion of Privacy	372

Chapter 6 Credit and Collections

6.1	Introduction	375
6.2	Loan Brokers	375
6.2.1	Overview of Regulation of Loan Brokers	375
6.2.2	Misrepresentations by Loan Brokers	376
6.2.3	Advance-Fee Brokers	376
6.2.4	Yield Spread Premiums	377
6.3	Imprudent Extension of Credit	378
6.3.1	General	378
6.3.2	UDAP and Other Laws Prohibiting Credit That Consumer Cannot Repay	378
6.3.3	Applying General UDAP Prohibitions to Imprudent Extension of Credit	379
6.3.4	Falsification of Credit Application by Seller or Broker	381
6.3.4.1	Nature of the Problem	381
6.3.4.2	The Consumer’s Legal Claims	381
6.3.4.3	Computing the Consumer’s Damages	382
6.3.4.4	Consumer’s Clean Hands	383
6.4	Violations of Federal and State Credit Laws as UDAP Violations	383
6.4.1	Truth in Lending Violations	383
6.4.2	RESPA Violations	385
6.4.3	Discriminatory Extension of Credit	385
6.4.4	Violations of State Credit Laws	386
6.4.5	Attempts to Evade Credit Legislation	387
6.5	Exorbitant Credit Charges	387
6.5.1	Credit Costs That Are Grossly in Excess of Those Usually Charged in Market	387
6.5.2	Other Unfairness or Unconscionability in Credit Charges	388
6.5.3	Uncovering Deception in Excessive Charge Cases	390
6.6	Deception, Coercion, and Violation of Credit Contract	391
6.6.1	Misrepresentation of Credit Terms	391
6.6.2	The Truth in Lending Act’s Credit Advertising Requirements	394
6.6.3	Nondisclosure of True Credit Terms	394
6.6.3.1	General	394
6.6.3.2	Rules Requiring Disclosure of All Material Restrictions	395
6.6.4	Coercive Tactics	396
6.6.5	Post-Consummation Violations	396
6.6.6	Banking Agency Guidelines	396
6.7	Home Mortgage Loans: Origination, Servicing, Loan Modification, Foreclosure	397
6.7.1	The FTC’s Mortgage Advertising Rule	397
6.7.2	Negotiation, Closing, and Loan Terms	397
6.7.2.1	Substantive Rules Under Truth in Lending Act	397
6.7.2.2	Federal Banking Agency Guidance on Mortgage Lending	398
6.7.2.3	Loans Doomed to Foreclosure Because of a Combination of Risky Features	399
6.7.2.4	Other Unfair and Deceptive Practices in Mortgage Lending	400
6.7.3	Servicing and Escrow Practices	401
6.7.4	Payoff of Mortgage	403
6.7.5	UDAP Claims Regarding Mortgage Loan Modification Attempts	403
6.7.5.1	Introduction	403
6.7.5.2	Role of HAMP Guidelines; Per Se UDAP Violations	403
6.7.5.3	Types of Unfair and Deceptive Practices in Connection with Loan Modifications	405
6.7.5.3.1	Misrepresentations in connection with loan modifications	405
6.7.5.3.2	Breach of agreement to modify loan as UDAP violation	407
6.7.5.3.3	Unfair loan modification terms	408
6.7.5.3.4	Other unfair loan modification practices	408
6.7.5.4	Meeting UDAP Statutes’ Injury Requirements in Loan Modification Cases	408
6.7.6	Foreclosure Practices	410
6.7.7	Foreclosure Rescue Scams	411

6.7.7.1	Introduction	411
6.7.7.2	“Phantom Help” Scams	412
6.7.7.3	Deed Theft Scams	412
6.8	Credit Cards and Related Services	413
6.8.1	Introduction	413
6.8.1.1	Credit Card Regulation	413
6.8.1.2	Cautionary Advice About Litigation Against Credit Card Issuers	414
6.8.1.3	Credit Card Marketing and Advertising	414
6.8.2	Regulatory Actions Against Credit Card Issuers	414
6.8.2.1	Consumer Financial Protection Bureau Enforcement Actions	414
6.8.2.2	UDAP Issues Involving Subprime Credit Cards	416
6.8.2.2.1	Introduction	416
6.8.2.2.2	Office of the Comptroller of the Currency Advisory Letters	416
6.8.3	Abuses by Non-Issuers Related to Credit Cards	417
6.8.3.1	Credit Card Finders	417
6.8.3.2	Unauthorized Credit Card Charges	418
6.8.3.3	Credit Balances	418
6.8.4	Credit Card Loss Protection and Reporting Services	419
6.9	Bank Accounts, Checks, Other Payment Methods	419
6.9.1	Deposit Accounts	419
6.9.1.1	Introduction	419
6.9.1.2	Misrepresentation or Nondisclosure of Interest Rate	419
6.9.1.3	Overdrafts and Overdraft Loans	419
6.9.1.4	Bank Fees	420
6.9.1.5	Electronic Fund Transfers	420
6.9.2	Check Cashing	421
6.9.3	Scammers, Payday Lenders, and Others Who Use Remotely Created Checks	421
6.9.4	Remittances	422
6.9.5	Live Check Solicitations	422
6.9.6	Gift Cards and Gift Certificates	422
6.10	Debt Collection	423
6.10.1	Advantages of UDAP Statute As a Remedy for Debt Collection Abuse	423
6.10.2	Sources of UDAP precedent	424
6.10.3	Misrepresentations Concerning Identity and Nature of Collector	424
6.10.4	Misrepresentations Concerning Imminence of Threatened Actions, Damage to Consumer’s Credit Rating	425
6.10.5	Misrepresentations Concerning Legal Consequences of Debt Nonpayment	426
6.10.6	Harassment	427
6.10.7	Collecting Debts or Amounts That Are Not Owed	427
6.10.8	Taking Illegal Actions Against the Consumer or the Consumer’s Property	429
6.10.9	Inconvenient Venue	429
6.10.10	Unfair and Deceptive Means of Obtaining Default Judgments and Other Litigation Misconduct	430
6.11	FTC Credit Practices Rule	430
6.11.1	General	430
6.11.2	Private UDAP Actions Utilizing the FTC Rule	430
6.11.3	Attempts to Circumvent FTC Credit Practices Rule	431
6.12	Challenging Other Creditor Remedies	431
6.12.1	Using the FTC Unfairness Theory, As Applied in the Credit Practices Rule	431
6.12.2	Case Law Finding Creditor Remedies Unfair or Deceptive	432
6.13	Unfair and Deceptive Repossession and Pawnshop Practices	433
6.13.1	Unfair Contract Provisions	433
6.13.2	Deceptive Contract Provisions	433
6.13.3	Unfair and Deceptive Repossession Conduct	434
6.13.4	Unfair or Deceptive Practices Relating to Redemption, Collateral Sales, Deficiencies, and Surpluses	435

6.13.5 Pawnbrokers’ Sale of Pawns Goods	436
6.14 Credit Repair, Credit Counseling, Debt Settlement, and Debt Elimination	436
6.14.1 Introduction	436
6.14.2 Credit Repair Organizations	436
6.14.3 Credit Counseling and Debt Management Plans	437
6.14.4 Debt Settlement and Debt Negotiation	437
6.14.5 Debt Elimination	438

Chapter 7 Motor Vehicle Sales, Rentals, and Repair

7.1 Discovery in Automobile Sales Cases	439
7.1.1 Introduction	439
7.1.2 Documents Available from the Dealer	439
7.1.3 Inspection of the Vehicle and Accompanying Documentation	440
7.1.4 Vehicle Title History	441
7.1.5 Licensing Agencies and the State Insurance Department	441
7.1.6 Law Enforcement and Consumer Complaint Agencies; Revenue Agencies	441
7.1.7 Court Files and Former Employees	441
7.1.8 Competitors and Trade Associations	442
7.1.9 Prior Owners, the Manufacturer’s Warranty Records, Dealer Repair Records, Auction Records	442
7.1.10 Tape Recording Conversations Between Dealer and Consumer	442
7.1.11 The Internet	442
7.1.12 The NADA Code of Ethics	443
7.1.13 Uncovering Hidden Dealer Assets	444
7.1.14 Individuals to Depose	444
7.2 “Back End” Sales: Financing, Insurance, Service Contracts, Documentary Charges, and Other Add-Ons	445
7.2.1 Back-End Sales Explained	445
7.2.2 “Packing” of Back-End Charges	446
7.2.3 Financing	446
7.2.3.1 Introduction	446
7.2.3.2 Dealer Kickbacks on Financing	447
7.2.3.3 UDAP Challenges to Dealer Kickbacks	447
7.2.3.4 Class Action ECOA Challenges to Dealer Kickbacks	448
7.2.3.5 Dealer’s Altering of Consumer’s Credit Application, Fictitious Down Payments, and Other Frauds on the Financer	448
7.2.4 Service Contracts, Extended Warranties	449
7.2.4.1 Undisclosed Dealer Profit on Sale of Contract	449
7.2.4.2 Where Dealer Is Actually the Service Contract Provider	449
7.2.4.3 Does the Contract Provide Meaningful Benefits?	450
7.2.4.4 Undisclosed Inspection Fees	450
7.2.4.5 Who Must Provide Benefits on the Service Contract	450
7.2.5 Credit Insurance and Other Insurance Products	451
7.2.6 Documentary Fees and Other “Paper” Charges	451
7.2.6.1 Introduction	451
7.2.6.2 UDAP Challenges	451
7.2.6.3 Truth in Lending Challenges	452
7.2.6.4 Anti-Trust Claims	452
7.2.6.5 State Statutory Restrictions	452
7.2.6.6 Unauthorized Practice of Law	453
7.2.7 Dealer-Installed Add-ons	453
7.2.7.1 Introduction	453
7.2.7.2 Rustproofing and Related Packages	453
7.2.7.3 Glass Etching	454
7.3 Unfair Dealer Negotiation Practices	454

7.3.1	The Turnover System	454
7.3.2	Dealer’s Illegal Use of Consumer Credit Reports	455
7.3.3	“Unhorsing” and Selling the Consumer’s Trade-In Prematurely.	456
7.3.4	Dealers Hiding Trade-Ins’ Negative Equity.	456
7.3.5	Dealer Failing to Pay Off the Lien on the Consumer’s Trade-In.	457
7.3.6	Lowering the Trade-In’s Agreed-Upon Price.	457
7.3.7	Playing Fast and Loose with the Paperwork	458
7.3.8	Misrepresentations as to Consumer Cancellation Rights.	459
7.3.9	Cooling-Off Periods in Automotive Sales	459
7.3.10	Yo-Yo (Spot-Delivery) Abuses.	459
7.3.11	Hired Guns, Tent Sales, and Other Short-Term Techniques.	460
7.3.12	Private Sellers and Curbstoners	460
7.4	Used Car Sales	461
7.4.1	Introduction	461
7.4.2	FTC Used Car Rule	461
7.4.3	Sale of Used Cars As New; Demonstrators and Program Cars	461
7.4.4	Nature of Prior Use	462
7.4.5	Odometer Rollbacks and Mileage Misrepresentations	463
7.4.6	Sale of Salvage and Flood-Damaged Cars and Undisclosed Body Damage.	464
7.4.7	“Lemon Laundering” (Undisclosed Sale of Car Previously Returned As a Lemon).	465
7.4.8	Deceptive Practices Relating to Goodwill Buybacks.	466
7.4.9	Nondisclosure or Misrepresentation of Vehicle Defects	466
7.4.9.1	General	466
7.4.9.2	The Special Case of a Demonstrator with a Repair History.	467
7.4.9.3	Dealer Re-Sale of the Same Junk Used RV or Car to Lure Consumers into More Costly Deals	467
7.4.10	Misrepresentations Concerning Clear Title	467
7.4.11	Misrepresentations of Vehicle Characteristics	467
7.4.12	Misrepresentations as to Vehicle Warranty	468
7.4.13	Excessive Price.	468
7.4.14	“Buy-Here, Pay-Here” Dealerships	468
7.4.14.1	General.	468
7.4.14.2	Credit Repair Laws May Apply to “Buy-Here, Pay-Here” Dealerships	469
7.4.14.3	Revolving Repossession Practices.	469
7.4.14.4	Information to Obtain in Discovery	470
7.5	New Car Sales.	470
7.5.1	Introduction	470
7.5.2	Pricing Misrepresentations.	470
7.5.3	The Monroney Sticker	473
7.5.4	Undisclosed Damage Before a New Car Is Sold	474
7.5.5	Misrepresentation of Vehicle Identity, Characteristics.	475
7.5.6	Stealing Manufacturer Rebates	476
7.5.7	Destination Charges	476
7.5.8	Slow and Non-Delivery of Ordered Cars.	476
7.5.9	Misrepresentation of Warranties Offered.	476
7.5.10	Manufacturer and Dealer Handling of New Car Defects.	477
7.5.10.1	Obligation to Disclose Known Defects	477
7.5.10.2	Secret Warranties	477
7.5.10.3	Breach of Written and Implied Warranties As UDAP Violations.	478
7.6	Automobile Leases	478
7.6.1	Applicability of UDAP to Automobile Leases.	478
7.6.2	Deceptive Inducements and Misrepresentations About the Lease’s Nature	479
7.6.3	Early Termination and Default.	480
7.6.4	UDAP Violations at Scheduled Termination, Including Charges for Excess Mileage and Wear.	481
7.6.5	UCC Article 2A Unconscionability As Alternative to UDAP Claim.	481

7.7	Daily Rental Car Practices	482
7.7.1	Introduction	482
7.7.2	Collision Damage Waivers and Insurance	482
7.7.3	Undisclosed Charges; Switching of Car Models	482
7.7.4	Excess Charges to Repair Damage	483
7.7.5	Abuses Relating to Use of GPS Devices	483
7.8	Automobile Brokers and Car Finders	483
7.9	Sale of Automobile Accessories	484
7.10	Automobile Repairs and Towing	484
7.10.1	Introduction	484
7.10.2	Estimates, Repair Orders	484
7.10.3	Replaced Parts and Invoices.	486
7.10.4	Misrepresentation That Work Is Required or of Type of Work Performed; Shoddy Work	486
7.10.5	Timeliness of Repairs; Unauthorized Use of Car.	487
7.10.6	Failure to Correct Inadequate Repairs	487
7.10.7	Bill Collecting Practices.	488
7.10.8	Towing Practices	488

Chapter 8 Home and Home-Related Transactions

8.1	Manufactured Homes	489
8.1.1	Manufactured Home Sales	489
8.1.1.1	Sales Misrepresentations	489
8.1.1.2	Defects in the Home, the Site, or the Installation.	489
8.1.1.3	Improvident Extension of Manufactured Home Credit	490
8.1.1.4	Land-Home Packages	490
8.1.2	Manufactured Home Communities	490
8.1.2.1	What Statutes and Regulations Apply	490
8.1.2.2	Tying Arrangements in Sale of Manufactured Homes, Utilities, or Other Products; Discriminatory Practices	491
8.1.2.3	Unfair Restriction on Tenant’s Sale of the Home.	491
8.1.2.4	Licensure, Leases, Misrepresentations.	492
8.1.2.5	Manufactured Home Community Eviction Practices.	492
8.1.2.6	Other Approaches to Protecting Manufactured Home Community Residents	493
8.1.2.6.1	Resident ownership of the manufactured home community.	493
8.1.2.6.2	Manufactured home community legislation	493
8.1.2.6.3	Referral to manufactured home community residents associations.	494
8.2	Landlord-Tenant and Employer-Provided Housing	494
8.2.1	Introduction	494
8.2.2	Apartment Finders	495
8.2.3	Security Deposits and Calculation of Rents.	495
8.2.4	Rental Agreements	495
8.2.5	Quality of Housing.	496
8.2.5.1	Substandard Housing	496
8.2.5.2	Authority to Rent Out a Unit; Failure to Obtain Occupancy Certificates	497
8.2.5.3	Misrepresentations Related to Crime Prevention.	497
8.2.6	Utilities.	498
8.2.7	The Tenant’s Early Termination	498
8.2.8	Evictions.	498
8.2.8.1	Deceptive Notices to Quit	498
8.2.8.2	Retaliatory or Improper Eviction	498
8.2.8.3	Excessive Fees	499
8.2.8.4	Landlord Seizure of Evicted Tenant’s Possessions	499
8.2.9	Employer-Provided Housing: Migrant Farmworker Camps	499
8.3	Real Estate and Home Sales	500
8.3.1	Deception Concerning the Nature of the Home.	500

8.3.1.1	Deception and Non-Disclosure	500
8.3.1.2	Inapplicability of Seller Defenses	502
8.3.2	UDAP Violations Concerning Title, Financing, and the Homeowner's Legal Rights	502
8.3.3	Special Issues Concerning Real Estate Agents and Brokers	503
8.3.4	Property Flipping	504
8.3.4.1	Importance of Suing Multiple Participants in the Scam	504
8.3.4.2	UDAP Precedent	504
8.3.4.3	Other Causes of Action	505
8.3.5	Appraisal Fraud	506
8.3.5.1	Nature of Appraisal Fraud	506
8.3.5.2	Investigating Appraisal Fraud	506
8.3.5.3	UDAP Claims Regarding Appraisal Fraud	506
8.3.6	Special Issues Concerning Home Builders	508
8.3.6.1	Misrepresentations Concerning the Home or Work to Be Performed	508
8.3.6.2	Performance Problems, Warranties	509
8.3.7	Precut Housing	510
8.3.8	Land Fraud Schemes	510
8.3.9	Timeshares	511
8.4	Home Improvement Sales	512
8.4.1	General	512
8.4.2	Marketing Misrepresentations	512
8.4.3	The Home Improvement Contract and Warranties	513
8.4.4	Building Permits and Construction Standards	514
8.4.5	Pricing Issues: Unconscionability, Unauthorized Charges, Misrepresentations	514
8.4.6	Failure to Perform Work Properly and As Scheduled	515
8.4.7	Credit-Related Practices and Lender Liability	516
8.5	Heating Fuel, Electricity, Telecommunications, and Other Utilities	516
8.5.1	Unregulated Fuels: Heating Oil, Propane, Kerosene, and Wood	516
8.5.1.1	Problems Facing Users of Unregulated Fuels	516
8.5.1.2	Applicability of the UDAP Statute	517
8.5.1.3	UDAP Case Law	517
8.5.1.4	UDAP Regulations	518
8.5.1.5	Price Gouging	519
8.5.1.6	UDAP Principles Applicable to the Sale of Unregulated Fuels	519
8.5.2	Gas and Electric Service	520
8.5.2.1	Applicability	520
8.5.2.2	Retail Energy Market Abuses by Unregulated Suppliers	521
8.5.2.3	Illegal Shut-Offs and Interrupted Service	522
8.5.3	Telecommunications	523
8.5.3.1	UDAP Applicability	523
8.5.3.2	Slamming (Changing Service Providers Without the Consumer's Authorization)	524
8.5.3.3	Prepaid Phone Cards	524
8.5.3.4	Unauthorized Charges on Phone Bills (Cramming)	524
8.5.3.5	Wireless Service	525
8.5.3.6	Voice Over Internet	528
8.5.3.7	Internet Service Providers and Domain Name Registrations	529
8.5.4	Water and Sewer Service	530
8.5.4.1	Overview	530
8.5.4.2	Regulated Water Utilities	531
8.5.4.3	Unregulated Providers	531
8.6	Household Services	532
8.6.1	Moving and Storage of Household Goods	532
8.6.2	Alarm and Emergency Response Systems, Other Emergency Devices	533
8.6.3	Pest Control Services	534
8.6.4	Water Quality Improvement Systems	534
8.6.5	Radon Testing	535

8.7	Rent to Own	535
	8.7.1 Importance of UDAP Approach	535
	8.7.2 Applicability of UDAP Statutes to RTO Transactions	535
	8.7.3 Deceptive RTO Inducements, Sales and Warranty Practices	536
	8.7.4 Disclosure of RTO Transaction’s Effective Annual Percentage Rate	537
	8.7.5 Applicability of Three-Day Cooling-Off Period to RTO Transactions	537
	8.7.5.1 General	537
	8.7.5.2 The $25 Minimum Payment Requirement	538
	8.7.5.3 Does the Transaction Take Place Outside the RTO Store?	538
	8.7.6 Deceptive Repossession and Debt Collection Tactics	538
	8.7.7 UCC Article 2A Unconscionability As Alternative to UDAP	539
8.8	Food; Tobacco; Other Household Products	539
	8.8.1 Food Labels and Nutritional Claims	539
	8.8.1.1 General	539
	8.8.1.2 The Role of FDA Standards	541
	8.8.1.3 Use of the Term “Organic”	541
	8.8.2 Freezer Meats	542
	8.8.3 Tobacco	542
	8.8.4 Energy Savings Claims for Household Products	543
	8.8.5 Environmental Claims for Household Products	544
	8.8.6 Computers and Other Electronic Equipment	545
	8.8.7 Furniture and Carpet Sales	546
	8.8.8 Handguns	546
	8.8.9 Magazines and Encyclopedias	546
	8.8.10 Miscellaneous Household Products	547

Chapter 9 Services, Insurance, Opportunity Schemes, Other Transactions

9.1	Future-Service Contracts: Health Spas, Dance Studios, Membership Campgrounds, Buying Clubs, and Trade Schools	549
	9.1.1 Introduction	549
	9.1.2 Cancellation of Future-Service Contracts	549
	9.1.2.1 The Seller’s Contract Provision	549
	9.1.2.2 State Statutes May Override Contractual Cancellation Provision	550
	9.1.2.3 Contract Law Defenses May Provide Additional Protections	550
	9.1.2.4 UDAP Approaches	550
	9.1.3 Health Clubs	551
	9.1.3.1 FTC Rulemaking Proceeding, State Statutes	551
	9.1.3.2 UDAP Precedent	552
	9.1.3.3 When a Health Club Closes Down	553
	9.1.4 Dance Studios	554
	9.1.5 Campground Resort Memberships	554
	9.1.5.1 Potential Membership Campground UDAP Violations	554
	9.1.5.2 Special Membership Campground Statutes	555
	9.1.5.3 Practice Tips	556
	9.1.6 Buying Clubs; Discount Coupons	557
	9.1.7 For-Profit Schools	558
	9.1.7.1 Nature and History of For-Profit School Abuses	558
	9.1.7.2 FTC Guides	559
	9.1.7.3 UDAP Precedent	559
	9.1.7.4 Higher Education Act Preemption of UDAP Claims	562
	9.1.7.5 Other Claims	562
	9.1.7.6 Obstacles to Suing Schools	564
	9.1.7.7 School Abuses As Defense to Student Loan Repayment	564

9.2	Travel	562
9.2.1	Air Travel	565
9.2.2	Cruises	565
9.2.3	Travel Packages and Certificates	565
9.2.4	Travel Agents	566
9.2.5	Marketing of International Driver’s Permits	566
9.3	Health and Nutrition	566
9.3.1	Hearing Aids	566
9.3.2	Other Medical Cures, Weight Loss Products	567
9.3.3	Nursing Facilities	568
9.3.4	Assisted Living Facilities	569
9.3.5	Funerals	570
9.3.6	Hospital Treatment and Payment Issues	570
9.3.7	Managed Care	572
9.3.8	Tobacco	572
9.4	Attorneys, Living Trusts, Other Fiduciaries	573
9.4.1	Attorneys	573
9.4.2	Immigration Consultants or Assistants	574
9.4.2.1	Unfair and Deceptive Tactics; UDAP Claims	574
9.4.2.2	State Immigration Consultant Laws	574
9.4.3	Bankruptcy Petition Preparers	575
9.4.4	Unauthorized Practice of Law	576
9.4.5	Living Trusts	578
9.4.6	Trustees, Escrow Agents, Other Fiduciaries	580
9.4.7	Investigators and Other “Finders”	580
9.4.8	Accountants	580
9.5	Insurance	581
9.5.1	Introduction	581
9.5.2	State Unfair Insurance Practices Act (UNIP) Legislation	581
9.5.2.1	UNIP Legislation Described	581
9.5.2.2	Private UNIP Actions	582
9.5.2.2.1	Is there a private UNIP remedy?	582
9.5.2.2.2	Advantages and disadvantages of a private UNIP claim	586
9.5.2.3	Effect of UNIP Statute in a UDAP Action	586
9.5.2.3.1	UNIP standards as guides for determining UDAP violations	586
9.5.2.3.2	UDAP scope, displacement, exhaustion of administrative remedies, and primary jurisdiction	587
9.5.2.4	Is a Pattern of Unfair Claims Payments a Precondition to a UNIP or UDAP Insurance Action?	588
9.5.3	Unreasonable Refusal or Delay in Paying Claim As a UDAP Violation	589
9.5.3.1	UDAP Claim Distinguished from Claim Based on Insurer’s Breach of Contract	589
9.5.3.2	Refusal to Pay	589
9.5.3.3	Excessive Delay and Evasiveness As a UDAP Violation	591
9.5.3.4	Vexatious Litigation	592
9.5.3.5	Nondisclosure and Deception in the Claims Settlement Process	592
9.5.3.6	Requiring Consumer to Sign a Waiver As UDAP Violation	593
9.5.4	Misrepresentation Concerning Policy and Claims Settlement Practices	593
9.5.4.1	Misrepresentation Concerning Policy Coverage and Features	593
9.5.4.2	Misrepresentations Concerning Insurer Claims Settlement Policies	595
9.5.5	Twisting; Sale of Unnecessary Insurance; Other Unfair or Deceptive Sales Schemes	595
9.5.5.1	Introduction	595
9.5.5.2	Sales of Unnecessary Insurance	595
9.5.5.3	Twisting	596
9.5.5.4	Kickbacks	596
9.5.5.5	Other Sales Schemes	596
9.5.6	Unfair Discrimination	597

9.5.7	Excessive Premiums As a UDAP Violation	597
9.5.8	Third Party’s Failure to Purchase Insurance for the Consumer	598
9.5.9	Credit Insurance	598
9.5.9.1	Introduction	598
9.5.9.2	Failure to Disclose Excessive Cost or Kickbacks	599
9.5.9.3	Marketing Deception, Illusory Coverage	599
9.5.9.4	Coercion in Selling Credit Insurance	599
9.5.9.5	Sale of Excessive Credit Property Insurance	600
9.5.9.6	Failure to Pay Credit Insurance Claims	601
9.5.10	Force-Placed Automobile Insurance	601
9.5.11	“Packing” Non-Credit Insurance in Conjunction with Credit Sale	602
9.5.12	Mortgage Insurance	603
9.6	Opportunity Schemes and Other “Non-Sale” Transactions	603
9.6.1	Franchises and Business Opportunities	603
9.6.2	Employment Opportunities	604
9.6.3	Pyramid Sales	605
9.6.4	Contests and Game Promotions	607
9.6.5	Charitable Solicitations	609
9.6.5.1	State and Federal Restrictions	609
9.6.5.2	Constitutional Issues	610
9.6.6	Scholarship and Grant Location Services	610
9.6.7	Diploma Mills	611

Chapter 10 Liability of Various Parties

10.1	Introduction	613
10.1.1	Factors in Selecting Defendants	613
10.1.2	Outline of This Chapter	613
10.2	Liability of Agents and Principals	614
10.2.1	Introduction	614
10.2.2	Liability of Agents and Employees	614
10.2.3	Principals Liable for the Acts of Their Agents	615
10.2.3.1	The General Rule That Principals Are Liable	615
10.2.3.2	Liability Even Where Agent Acts Without Authority	616
10.2.3.3	Are Dealers Agents for the Manufacturer?	617
10.2.3.4	Principal’s Liability for Actions of Independent Contractor	617
10.2.3.5	Liability of Government Entities for Their Agents	618
10.2.3.6	Principal’s Liability for Multiple Damages	618
10.3	Liability of Officers, Owners, and Related Companies	618
10.3.1	Introduction	618
10.3.2	Liability for Own Actions	619
10.3.2.1	General	619
10.3.2.2	Conduct Sufficient to Create Liability	620
10.3.2.3	FTC Precedent	621
10.3.3	Piercing the Corporate Veil and Related Theories	623
10.3.4	Corporate Disregard, Other Theories to Sue Related Corporations	624
10.3.5	Liability of Co-Venturers, Partners	625
10.3.6	Liability of Franchisors	625
10.4	Those Aiding or Furnishing Means for Deception; Civil Conspiracy and Joint Enterprise	625
10.4.1	Types of Parties Who May Be Liable	625
10.4.2	Conduct Sufficient to Trigger Liability	626
10.4.2.1	General	626
10.4.2.2	Aiding and Abetting	628
10.4.2.2.1	Conduct sufficient to create liability	628
10.4.2.2.2	Where liability may not be found	628
10.4.2.3	Civil Conspiracy	629

10.4.2.3.1	General	629
10.4.2.3.2	The required elements	630
10.4.2.4	Ratification, Acceptance of Benefits, and Concealment of Fraud	631
10.4.2.5	The Close-Connectedness Doctrine	632
10.4.2.5.1	Utility of the doctrine	632
10.4.2.5.2	Affirmative recoveries under the doctrine	632
10.4.2.5.3	Flags of close-connectedness	633
10.4.3	Liability of Payment Processors and Related Entities As Aiders and Abettors	633
10.4.3.1	Introduction	633
10.4.3.2	Liability of Entities Involved in Credit Card Payments	634
10.4.3.3	Liability of Entities That Originate Remotely Created Checks	635
10.4.3.4	Debit Cards and Electronic Fund Transfers	635
10.4.3.5	Other Types of Payments	636
10.4.4	Those Assisting Telemarketing Fraud	636
10.4.5	Telephone Companies Helping to Collect Other Parties' Charges	637
10.4.6	Endorsers and Accrediting Organizations	638
10.5	Holder's Derivative Liability for Seller or Originating Lender-Related Claims	638
10.5.1	Introduction	638
10.5.2	Raising Seller-Related Claims Against the Seller's Assignee	639
10.5.2.1	General	639
10.5.2.2	FTC Holder Rule Coverage	639
10.5.2.3	Claims That Can Be Raised Derivatively	639
10.5.2.4	Calculating the Maximum Liability under the FTC Holder Rule	640
10.5.2.5	Limits to the FTC Holder Rule	640
10.5.3	Raising Seller-Related Claims Where Seller Refers the Lender	641
10.5.3.1	General	641
10.5.3.2	Theories of Recovery Where FTC Holder Notice Is Improperly Omitted	642
10.5.4	Raising Seller-Related Claims Against Credit Card Issuers	642
10.5.5	Liability of Lessor for Consumer's Claims Against the Dealer	643
10.5.6	Raising Lender-Related Defenses Against the Lender's Assignee	645
10.5.6.1	General	645
10.5.6.2	The Elements of Holder-in-Due-Course and the Shelter Rule	645
10.5.6.3	Eleven Ways to Defeat the Holder-in-Due-Course Defense	646
10.5.6.3.1	No holder in due course in home improvement contracts or other credit sales	646
10.5.6.3.2	No holder in due course in land installment sales	646
10.5.6.3.3	No holder in due course in home equity lines of credit	646
10.5.6.3.4	No holder in due course in reverse mortgages	646
10.5.6.3.5	No holder in due course in HOEPA loans	647
10.5.6.3.6	Option-ARMs	647
10.5.6.3.7	No holder in due course when paperwork is sloppy	647
10.5.6.3.8	No holder in due course when borrower delinquent prior to first transfer of instrument	648
10.5.6.3.9	No holder in due course when assignee takes in bad faith or is on notice of consumer defenses	648
10.5.6.3.10	No holder in due course when note comes with "luggage" or incorporates mortgage or other provisions	648
10.5.6.3.11	Defenses that can be raised against a holder in due course	649
10.6	Merchant Bonding, Insurance, and Consumer Recovery Funds	649
10.6.1	Recovering on a Bond	649
10.6.2	Recovering from the Merchant's Insurance Policy	650
10.6.2.1	Consumer Claims Within the Merchant's Insurance Coverages	650
10.6.2.2	Is There Insurance in Place?	651
10.6.3	Consumer Recovery Funds	652
10.7	UDAP Claims Against Sellers or Creditors Filing for Bankruptcy	652
10.8	Successor Corporations, Failed Banks, and Deceased Defendants	653

10.8.1	Liability of Successor Corporations	653
10.8.2	Suing Failed Banks, the FDIC, or a Successor Bank	654
10.8.3	Survival of Action After Defendant’s Death	655

Chapter 11 Litigating UDAP Cases

11.1	Introduction	657
11.2	Statutes of Limitations	657
11.2.1	Applicable Limitation Period	657
11.2.1.1	Where the UDAP Statute Contains Its Own Limitations Period	657
11.2.1.2	Selecting a Statute of Limitations When the UDAP Statute Is Silent	658
11.2.2	When Does the Period Start to Run?	660
11.2.2.1	Discovery Rule	660
11.2.2.2	Date of Deceptive Act vs. Date of Injury	663
11.2.2.3	Series of Events	664
11.2.2.4	Other State Rules	665
11.2.3	Tolling	665
11.2.3.1	General	665
11.2.3.2	Fraudulent Concealment and Estoppel	666
11.2.3.3	Pendency of Another Suit	666
11.2.4	Limitations Period Where Complaint Amended to Add New Claims or Parties	667
11.2.5	UDAP Recoupment Claims After the Limitations Period Expires	667
11.3	Retroactive Application of Statutory Provisions	668
11.4	Preconditions to Private Actions	670
11.4.1	Introduction	670
11.4.2	Damage Precondition	670
11.4.2.1	Nature and Implications of Damage Preconditions; Organizational Standing; Article III	670
11.4.2.1.1	Nature of damage precondition	670
11.4.2.1.2	Impact of damage precondition	670
11.4.2.1.3	Can an organization bring suit when its members have suffered injury?	671
11.4.2.1.4	Article III standing requirements	671
11.4.2.2	Types of Damage Preconditions	672
11.4.2.3	Injury Requirements Under California’s UDAP Statutes	675
11.4.2.4	UDAP Statutes That Explicitly Dispense with Damage Precondition	677
11.4.2.5	Exceptions to Damage Preconditions	678
11.4.2.6	Must the Amount of Damage Be Proven?	678
11.4.2.7	The Damage May Be Minimal	679
11.4.2.8	Consumer Injuries That Satisfy the Damage Requirement	680
11.4.2.8.1	Non-pecuniary losses	680
11.4.2.8.2	Clauses that have not been enforced	682
11.4.2.8.3	Temporary losses	683
11.4.2.8.4	Delivering product different than consumer bargained for	684
11.4.2.8.5	Where product has defects but has not yet failed	687
11.4.2.8.6	Overpayment	688
11.4.2.8.7	Bait-and-switch cases	689
11.4.2.8.8	Debts and litigation expenses	690
11.4.2.8.9	Threat of foreclosure or loss of home equity	691
11.4.2.8.10	Future losses; potential consequences of security breaches	691
11.4.2.8.11	Other losses	693
11.4.2.9	Causation	694
11.4.2.10	Proof of Damage Precondition	696
11.4.3	Public Interest Precondition	696
11.4.3.1	Almost All States Reject a Public Interest Requirement	696
11.4.3.2	Colorado Requires a Significant Impact on the Public As Consumers	698

11.4.3.3	Georgia Intermediate Appellate Courts Require Impact on Consumer Marketplace or Potential Harm to Consumer Public	699
11.4.3.4	Minnesota Requires Private UDAP Actions to Meet a Public Interest Test.	700
11.4.3.5	Nebraska Applies UDAP Statute Only to Transactions That Affect the Public Interest.	703
11.4.3.6	New York Requires That Practices Impact Consumers at Large	704
11.4.3.6.1	Description of the requirement	704
11.4.3.6.2	Examples of consumer-oriented conduct	705
11.4.3.6.3	Examples of conduct found not to be consumer-oriented.	707
11.4.3.6.4	Insurance transactions	709
11.4.3.7	South Carolina Requires That Practice Have Impact on Public Interest	710
11.4.3.8	The Washington State Standard	712
11.4.3.8.1	Description of the standard	712
11.4.3.8.2	Consumer transactions vs. private disputes and the applicable factors	713
11.4.3.8.3	Examples of transactions that meet the public interest test	714
11.4.3.8.4	Examples of transactions that do not meet the public interest test	715
11.4.4	Notice Letters As Precondition	715
11.4.4.1	Is a Notice Letter a Precondition to a UDAP Action?	715
11.4.4.2	Statutory Exceptions to Notice Requirements; Alternate Claims.	716
11.4.4.3	Are Notice Letters Required for Counterclaims and Amended UDAP Claims?	717
11.4.4.4	Can a Complaint Serve As the Notice Letter?	717
11.4.4.5	Delivery	718
11.4.4.6	To Whom and By Whom Must the Notice Letter Be Sent?	718
11.4.4.7	Content of the Notice Letter	719
11.4.4.8	Notice Letters and Class Actions	721
11.4.4.9	Pleading Notice and Proving Notice Was Sent	722
11.4.4.10	If Notice Was Not Sent	722
11.4.4.11	Seller’s Responsibilities on Receiving Notice Letter	724
11.5	Jurisdiction and Choice of Law Issues	725
11.5.1	Introduction	725
11.5.2	Jurisdiction over Out-of-State Sellers	725
11.5.2.1	Introduction	725
11.5.2.2	Statutory and Constitutional Limits on Long-Arm Jurisdiction.	725
11.5.2.3	Internet Transactions	727
11.5.2.4	Jurisdiction over Out-of-State Individuals	728
11.5.2.5	Conspiracy, Joint Venture, Parent Companies	728
11.5.2.6	Forum Non Conveniens	729
11.5.3	Choice of Law Issues	729
11.5.4	The Proper State Court	731
11.5.5	Federal Court Jurisdiction	732
11.5.6	Removal Jurisdiction	733
11.5.7	Bankruptcy Court Jurisdiction	736
11.5.8	The Enforceability of Binding Arbitration Agreements	736
11.5.8.1	General	736
11.5.8.2	Statutory Limits on Mandatory Arbitration	737
11.5.8.2.1	Federal limits for manufactured home and home mortgage loans	737
11.5.8.2.2	CFPB may limit arbitration of class actions	738
11.5.8.2.3	Credit transactions involving military personnel	738
11.5.8.2.4	State insurance law can prohibit arbitration	738
11.5.8.2.5	State law where claim involves no interstate commerce	738
11.5.8.3	Can the Defendant Prove the Arbitration Requirement?	739
11.5.8.4	A Threshold Issue: Who Determines Arbitrability—the Court or the Arbitrator?	739
11.5.8.5	Contract Law Defenses.	739
11.5.8.6	Class-Wide Arbitration	740

11.6	Pleading and Framing UDAP Claims	741
11.6.1	Complying with Notice Letter, Public Interest, Damage, and Scope Requirements	741
11.6.2	Choosing the Plaintiff and Defendants	742
11.6.3	Framing the Nature of the Suit	743
11.6.4	Elements to Plead	744
11.6.5	Allegations Should Be Specific	746
11.6.5.1	The Benefits of Specificity	746
11.6.5.2	Rule 9(b) vs. Rule 8(a)	747
11.6.5.3	Treatment of Omitted Claims	749
11.6.5.4	Efficiencies of Form Pleadings	749
11.6.6	Adding Non-UDAP Counts	750
11.6.7	Filing a UDAP Suit After a Collection Action and Other Res Judicata Issues	751
11.6.8	Preparing for Settlement	752
11.7	Discovery and Factual Investigation	752
11.7.1	Starting Discovery Early	752
11.7.2	The Scope of Discovery	752
11.7.3	Depositions	752
11.7.4	Document Requests and Admissions	753
11.7.5	Pattern Evidence and Evidence of Defendant’s Wealth	753
11.7.6	Other Approaches to Obtaining Evidence	755
11.8	Trial	755
11.8.1	Evidence and Proof Issues	755
11.8.1.1	Standard of Proof	755
11.8.1.2	Other Bad Acts	756
11.8.1.3	Expert Testimony	757
11.8.1.4	Other Evidence Issues	758
11.8.2	Trial Before a Judge or Jury	758
11.8.2.1	Strategic Considerations	758
11.8.2.2	Is a Jury Trial Available for UDAP Claims?	758
11.8.2.3	Questions of Law vs. Questions of Fact	760
11.8.2.4	Voir Dire , Opening and Closing Arguments, Jury Instructions, and Trial Strategy	761
11.9	Constitutional Issues	761
11.9.1	Introduction	761
11.9.2	The First Amendment	762
11.9.2.1	Deceptive Commercial Speech	762
11.9.2.2	Unfair Commercial Speech	763
11.9.2.3	Determining Whether Speech Is Commercial or Political	764
11.9.2.4	Attempts to Restrict Sale of Course Materials or Other Publications	765
11.9.2.5	First Amendment and Other Issues in Defamation Claims by Dealers	766
11.9.3	Vagueness	766
11.9.4	Constitutionality of UDAP Remedies and Procedures	767
11.9.4.1	Constitutionality of Statutory and Multiple Damages	767
11.9.4.2	Self-Incrimination and the Right to Confront Witnesses	769
11.9.4.3	Due Process and Other Challenges to UDAP Enforcement Procedures	769
11.9.5	Other Constitutional Challenges	769

Chapter 12 Private UDAP Remedies

12.1	Nature and Liberal Interpretation of UDAP Remedies	773
12.2	Private Causes of Action and Remedies Under UDAP Statutes	774
12.2.1	Private Right of Action Unambiguously Exists in Every State	774
12.2.2	Private Cause of Action Issues in Delaware	775
12.2.3	Private Cause of Action Issues in Hawaii	775
12.2.4	Private Cause of Action Issues in Wisconsin	775
12.2.5	California UDAP Remedies	775

12.2.6	Remedy Issues in Maine and New York	776
12.2.7	Remedy Issues in Iowa	776
12.2.7.1	2009 Statutory Amendment Creates Explicit Private Cause of Action	776
12.2.7.2	Implied Causes of Action in Iowa	777
12.2.8	Causes of Action and Remedies Under UDTPA-Type Statutes	777
12.2.8.1	Can Consumers Bring Actions Under UDTPA-Type Statutes?	777
12.2.8.2	Relief Available Under UDTPA-Type Statutes	777
12.3	Calculating Actual Damages	778
12.3.1	Introduction	778
12.3.2	Direct Actual Damages	778
12.3.2.1	How Are Direct Damages Calculated: Out of Pocket, Loss of Bargain, or Cost to Repair?	778
12.3.2.2	Loss-of-Bargain Damages	779
12.3.2.3	Cost-to-Repair Damages	780
12.3.2.4	Out-of-Pocket Damages or Restitution	781
12.3.2.4.1	General	781
12.3.2.4.2	Need the court deduct the value of the product from the restitution amount?	783
12.3.2.4.3	Restitution under California Law	783
12.3.3	Consequential Damages	785
12.3.3.1	General	785
12.3.3.2	Standards to Prove Consequential Damages	786
12.3.3.3	Financing Costs As Consequential Damages	786
12.3.3.4	Consequential Damages Based on Consumer’s Lost Time or Earnings	786
12.3.3.5	Lost Use of a Product or Service	787
12.3.3.6	Injury to Credit Rating	787
12.3.3.7	Attorney Fees As Consequential Damages	787
12.3.3.8	Physical Injuries	788
12.3.3.9	Pain and Suffering; Mental Anguish	789
12.3.3.9.1	General	789
12.3.3.9.2	States where UDAP pain and suffering damages are never recoverable	789
12.3.3.9.3	Pain and suffering damages generally recoverable where there is physical injury.	789
12.3.3.9.4	Pain and suffering damages recoverable where deception intentional or grossly negligent.	790
12.3.3.9.5	Pain and suffering damages may be even more broadly available in UDAP cases	790
12.3.3.9.6	Special statutory standards for mental anguish damages	790
12.3.3.9.7	Is mere aggravation enough?	791
12.3.4	Prejudgment Interest	791
12.3.5	Proving Actual Damages and Causation	792
12.3.5.1	General Standards.	792
12.3.5.2	Damages and Causation in Bait-and-Switch Cases	794
12.3.6	Limitations on the Amount of Damages	795
12.3.6.1	Remedy Limitation Clauses	795
12.3.6.2	Collateral Source Rule	795
12.3.6.3	Mitigation of Damages.	795
12.3.7	Interrelation of UDAP Actual Damages and Damages on Other Claims	795
12.4	Statutory, Multiple, and Punitive Damages.	796
12.4.1	Statutory Minimum Damages	796
12.4.1.1	General	796
12.4.1.2	Statutory Damages for Multiple Claims or Multiple Plaintiffs	797
12.4.1.3	Should Statutory Damages Be Trebled?	798
12.4.1.4	Interrelationship Between Statutory Damages and Other Awards	798
12.4.2	Multiple Damages	798

12.4.2.1	General	798
12.4.2.2	Are Multiple Damages Mandatory?	799
12.4.2.3	Limits on Treble Damages Award	800
12.4.2.3.1	Intent or knowledge preconditions	800
12.4.2.3.2	Bad faith refusal to settle as precondition	801
12.4.2.3.3	Other preconditions to multiple damage awards	802
12.4.2.3.4	Standards where multiple damages are discretionary	803
12.4.2.3.5	Statutory standards as to the multiplier to be utilized	803
12.4.2.4	Are Multiple Damages Available in Default Judgments?	804
12.4.2.5	Arbitration and Multiple Damages	804
12.4.2.5.1	Can UDAP multiple damages claims be forced into arbitration?	804
12.4.2.5.2	Does an arbitrator have authority to award multiple damages?	804
12.4.2.6	Interrelation of Treble Damages with Other Awards	805
12.4.2.7	How to Calculate Multiple Damages	807
12.4.2.7.1	Relationship to seller's recovery in the same case	807
12.4.2.7.2	Calculation issues where there are multiple parties	808
12.4.2.7.3	What awards should be trebled?	808
12.4.2.7.4	Emotional distress damages	809
12.4.2.7.5	Should the amount of a cancelled or rescinded debt be trebled?	809
12.4.2.7.6	Prejudgment and postjudgment interest; other financing costs	809
12.4.2.8	Should the Jury Be Told That Actual Damages Will Be Trebled?	810
12.4.2.9	Parties Liable for Treble Damages	812
12.4.3	Punitive Damages	812
12.4.3.1	Are Punitive Damages Available Under a UDAP Statute?	812
12.4.3.2	Common Law Fraud Punitive Damages Where UDAP Punitive Damages Not Available	813
12.4.3.3	Standards for Determining Whether UDAP Punitive Damages Should Be Awarded	814
12.4.3.4	Need Consumer Prove Actual Damages?	815
12.4.3.5	Arbitration and Punitive Damages	815
12.4.3.5.1	Are punitive damages authorized in arbitration?	815
12.4.3.5.2	Advantages of seeking punitive damages in arbitration	816
12.4.3.6	Limits on the Amount of Punitive Damages	816
12.4.3.6.1	Constitutional limitations enunciated by the United States Supreme Court	816
12.4.3.6.2	State statutory caps on punitive damages awards	817
12.4.3.6.3	Potential of multiple punitive damages awards against one defendant	819
12.4.3.7	Who Is Liable for Punitive Damages?	819
12.4.3.8	Interrelation of Punitive Damages with Other Remedies	820
12.5	Class Actions	821
12.5.1	General	821
12.5.2	UDAP Class Action Procedures	821
12.5.2.1	Special State Requirements and Restrictions for UDAP Class Actions	821
12.5.2.2	Effect of Shady Grove on UDAP Class Actions Filed in Federal Court	823
12.5.3	UDAP Class Actions Where Individual Damage Is Minimal	824
12.5.4	Proving That a UDAP Violation Is Common to the Class	824
12.5.4.1	Comparison of UDAP and Fraud Class Actions	824
12.5.4.2	Showing a Common Deceptive Practice	825
12.5.4.2.1	General	825
12.5.4.2.2	Mass advertising	825
12.5.4.2.3	Standardized sales presentations	826
12.5.4.2.4	Common problems with the product itself	826
12.5.4.2.5	Common excess charges	827
12.5.4.2.6	Standard form contract provisions	827
12.5.4.2.7	Standardized collection practices	827

12.5.4.2.8	Common failure to disclose a material fact	827
12.5.4.2.9	Do class issues predominate?	828
12.5.4.2.10	Is the class action superior?	830
12.5.5	Multi-State Class Actions	830
12.5.6	“Picking Off” Named Plaintiffs	832
12.5.7	Statutory Damages for Each Class Member	832
12.6	Injunctions and Other Equitable Relief	833
12.6.1	Advantages of the Injunctive Remedy	833
12.6.2	Does a UDAP Statute Authorize Private Injunctive Relief?	833
12.6.2.1	Statutes That Explicitly Authorize Private Injunctive Relief	833
12.6.2.2	Implying an Injunctive Remedy in Other States	834
12.6.3	Preconditions for Private Injunctive Relief	834
12.6.3.1	Must the Plaintiff Be Injured?	834
12.6.3.2	Injunctions to Benefit the Public; Must the Plaintiff Benefit from the Injunction?	835
12.6.3.2.1	Article III standing	835
12.6.3.2.2	The “likely to be damaged” standard	836
12.6.3.2.3	Other state standards	836
12.6.3.2.4	Where the statute is silent	837
12.6.3.3	Adequate Remedy at Law and Other Impediments to Injunctive Relief	837
12.6.4	Other Equitable Relief	838
12.6.5	Declaratory Relief	839
12.7	Voiding and Rescinding Contracts	839
12.7.1	Introduction	839
12.7.2	Statutory Language Authorizing Remedy	839
12.7.3	Where Statute Is Silent As to Availability of Remedy	840
12.7.4	Procedures to Rescind Contract	841
12.7.5	Relationship of Rescission to Other UDAP Remedies	841
12.8	Attorney Fees	842
12.8.1	Purpose of UDAP Attorney Fee Provisions	842
12.8.2	When Are UDAP Attorney Fees Available?	843
12.8.2.1	Statutory Preconditions to Attorney Fee Award	843
12.8.2.2	Where No Explicit Statutory Authority for Fees	845
12.8.2.3	Availability of Other Remedies Does Not Limit Access to Fees	845
12.8.3	Are Attorney Fees Mandatory?	845
12.8.4	When Does a Consumer Prevail, Triggering UDAP Attorney Fees?	847
12.8.4.1	Must the Consumer Prove UDAP Damages?	847
12.8.4.2	Must the Consumer’s Recovery Exceed the Creditor’s?	848
12.8.4.3	Multiple Claims, Parties, or Trials	849
12.8.4.4	Attorney Fees for Work on Default Judgments and Protecting a Judgment	850
12.8.4.5	Settlements	850
12.8.4.5.1	Are fees available after settlement?	850
12.8.4.5.2	Can a seller ask the consumer to waive fees in a settlement?	851
12.8.4.5.3	Preserving a fee claim when settling a case	851
12.8.4.6	Collateral Proceedings, Including Proceedings Relating to the Fee Award	852
12.8.5	Attorney Fees in Arbitration Proceedings	853
12.8.5.1	Where Arbitration Restricts Prevailing Consumer’s Right to Fees	853
12.8.5.2	Where Arbitrator with Authority to Do So Fails to Award Fees to Prevailing Consumer	853
12.8.5.3	Where Arbitration Agreement Provides Consumer Must Pay Prevailing Defendants’ Fees	853
12.8.6	Attorney Fees for Appellate Work	854
12.8.6.1	When Are Such Fees Awarded?	854
12.8.6.2	Who Determines Appellate Attorney Fees?	855
12.8.7	Types of Representation Entitled to Fees	855
12.8.7.1	Attorney Fees for Legal Services and Other Public Interest Attorneys	855

12.8.7.2	Paralegals and Law Clerks	856
12.8.7.3	Expert Witnesses	856
12.8.7.4	Pro Se Representation and In-House Counsel	856
12.8.8	Who Receives the Fees?	857
12.8.9	Who Is Liable for Attorney Fees?	857
12.8.10	Attorney Fees for Prevailing Sellers	857
12.8.10.1	Introduction	857
12.8.10.2	Has the Seller Prevailed?	858
12.8.10.3	Tougher Standard for Sellers' Fees Where Award Is Discretionary for Either Party	858
12.8.10.4	Where a UDAP Statute Explicitly Limits Fees to Frivolous or Bad Faith Actions	859
12.8.10.4.1	Importance of the exact statutory language	859
12.8.10.4.2	Meaning of "for purposes of harassment"	860
12.8.10.4.3	Meaning of "bad faith"	860
12.8.10.4.4	Meaning of "groundless"	860
12.8.10.4.5	Meaning of "frivolous"	861
12.8.10.4.6	Procedural and calculation issues	861
12.8.10.5	Authority for Seller's Attorney Fees Where No Explicit Authorization in UDAP Statute	862
12.8.11	How Attorney Fees Are Calculated	862
12.8.11.1	Why UDAP Attorney Fee Awards Must Be Adequate	862
12.8.11.2	Examples of Significant UDAP Attorney Fee Awards	865
12.8.11.3	Factors Used to Calculate Fees	866
12.8.11.3.1	Standards vary by state	866
12.8.11.3.2	The lodestar formula	873
12.8.11.3.3	Fees calculated based on contingency fee agreement	875
12.8.11.4	Awards for Work on Non-UDAP Counts and on Unsuccessful UDAP Counts	876
12.8.11.5	Calculating Fees for Public Interest Attorneys	878
12.8.11.6	Fees for Paralegals, Law Clerks	878
12.8.11.7	Out-of-Pocket Expenses; Costs	878
12.8.11.8	Effect of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 68 and Similar State Rules	878
12.8.12	Judicial Procedure for Seeking Attorney Fees	879
12.8.12.1	Pleading and Documentation Required for a Fee Award	879
12.8.12.2	The Consumer's Burden of Proof	880
12.8.12.3	Timing of the Fee Petition	880
12.8.12.4	Who Makes the Fee Determination?	881
12.8.12.5	Procedure for Appellate Fees	881
12.8.13	Tips on Handling Attorney Fee Hearings	881

Chapter 13 State Agency Enforcement

13.1	Introduction	885
13.2	Practices and Respondents Subject to State Enforcement Actions	885
13.2.1	Introduction	885
13.2.2	Special UDAP Scope Issues for State Enforcement Actions	885
13.2.3	Special Deception Standards for State Enforcement	886
13.2.4	Special Standards for Unfairness, Unconscionability, Unsubstantiated Claims	887
13.2.5	Persons Liable in State Enforcement Actions	887
13.2.6	The Dodd-Frank Act's Expansion of Attorney General Enforcement Authority	888
13.2.6.1	Overview	888
13.2.6.2	Substantive Meaning of the Act's General UDAAP Prohibition	889
13.2.6.3	Scope Issues	889
13.3	Civil Investigative Demands, Subpoenas, and Other Investigative Issues	889
13.3.1	Introduction; State's Authority to Use Compulsory Process	889
13.3.2	When Can the State Initiate an Investigation?	890

13.3.3	Standards of Review for Compulsory Process	890
13.3.4	Constitutional Issues	892
13.3.4.1	Due Process	892
13.3.4.2	Self-Incrimination	892
13.3.4.3	Unreasonable Search and Seizure	893
13.3.4.4	The First Amendment	894
13.3.5	Preconditions	894
13.3.5.1	Reasonable Cause	894
13.3.5.2	Other Preconditions	895
13.3.6	Defects on the Face of a Subpoena	895
13.3.7	Trade Secrets, Confidential Information	896
13.3.8	Different Forms of Discovery Distinguished	897
13.3.9	Test Purchases	897
13.3.10	Access to FTC Investigational Records	898
13.3.11	Respondent’s Discovery of the State’s Case or Policies	898
13.3.12	Public’s Access to Results of State’s Civil Investigation	899
13.4	Challenges to State Enforcement Actions; Litigation Issues	899
13.4.1	Must the State First Offer Voluntary Compliance or Notify the Respondent?	899
13.4.2	Does the Enforcing Authority Have Reason to Believe the Act Has Been Violated?	900
13.4.3	Do Preconditions to Private Actions Apply?	900
13.4.4	Standing Issues and Scope of State’s Authority	901
13.4.5	Selective Enforcement and the “Everyone Does It” Defense	902
13.4.6	Can the State Proceed Administratively?	902
13.4.7	Removal to Federal Court	903
13.4.8	The Statute of Limitations	904
13.4.9	Pre-Trial Disclosures by the State Enforcement Authority	904
13.4.10	The Respondent’s Counter Suit or Calling Attorney General Staff As Witnesses	905
13.4.11	The Respondent’s Claim of a Right to Court-Appointed Counsel	905
13.4.12	Special Counsel	906
13.5	Enforcement Remedies	906
13.5.1	Cease and Desist Orders, Injunctions	906
13.5.1.1	Introduction	906
13.5.1.2	Mootness	907
13.5.1.3	Preliminary Injunctions	907
13.5.1.4	Preconditions to an Injunctive Order	908
13.5.1.5	Breadth of the Order	909
13.5.1.5.1	General considerations	909
13.5.1.5.2	First Amendment considerations	909
13.5.1.5.3	Can an injunction prevent a business from operating?	909
13.5.1.5.4	Special statutory limitations to injunctive remedy	910
13.5.1.6	Innovative Orders	910
13.5.1.7	Who Should Be Named in an Injunctive Order	912
13.5.1.8	Effect of Bankruptcy Stay on Injunction	912
13.5.1.9	Judicial Modification of Consent Decrees	913
13.5.1.10	Public Disclosure of Consent Agreements	913
13.5.2	Violations of Cease and Desist Orders, Injunctions, Assurances of Voluntary Compliance	913
13.5.2.1	Standard of Proof, Right to Jury Trial and Appointed Counsel	913
13.5.2.2	Violations of Assurances of Voluntary Compliance	914
13.5.2.3	Who Must Comply with the Injunction and Has the Injunction Been Violated?	914
13.5.2.4	Size of Penalty for Violations	914
13.5.3	Civil Penalties for Initial Violations	915
13.5.3.1	Procedures for Imposing Civil Penalties	915
13.5.3.2	Constitutional Challenges to Civil Penalties	916
13.5.3.3	Double Jeopardy Issues and Civil Penalties	916
13.5.3.4	Criteria for Civil Penalties	916
13.5.3.5	Factors for Determining Amount of Civil Penalties	917

13.5.3.6	Multiple Civil Penalties	917
13.5.3.7	Enhanced Penalties Where State of Emergency or Victim Is Elderly or Disabled	919
13.5.3.8	Who Is Liable for Civil Penalties?	920
13.5.3.9	Indemnification and Insurance Not Available to Pay Civil Penalties.	920
13.5.3.10	Civil Penalties in Bankruptcy.	920
13.5.4	Restitution	920
13.5.4.1	State Authority to Seek Restitution	920
13.5.4.2	Which Consumers Can Benefit from a Restitution Order?	921
13.5.4.3	Payments to Entities Other Than Victimized Consumers	922
13.5.4.4	Who Is Liable for a Restitution Order?	922
13.5.4.5	Determining the Restitution Amount	923
13.5.4.6	Types of Restitution Relief Available.	924
13.5.4.7	Where Respondent Files Bankruptcy or Fails to Pay Ordered Restitution	924
13.5.4.7.1	Restitution where seller files for bankruptcy	924
13.5.4.7.2	Other approaches to ensure payment of restitution obligation	925
13.5.4.8	Relation of Restitution to Other Remedies.	926
13.5.4.9	Restitution's Relation to Private Suits	926
13.5.5	Asset Attachment Orders	927
13.5.6	Receivership and Dissolution.	927
13.5.7	Settlement and Releases.	928
13.5.8	Attorney Fees and Other Litigation Costs for the State and for the Respondent.	928
Appendix A	Statute-by-Statute Analysis of State UDAP Statutes.	931
Appendix B	Useful Websites	957
Index		959