There is a strong policy under state and federal warranty laws against displacement of one remedy by another. The Magnuson-Moss Warranty Act states that nothing in the Act “shall invalidate or restrict any right or remedy of any consumer under State or any other Federal law.”\textsuperscript{174} The Act does preempt certain conflicting statutes dealing with disclosure of warranty terms.\textsuperscript{175} The interrelation of the Magnuson-Moss Warranty Act and state laws is examined in §§ 2.9 [1], 14.2.9.4 [2], infra.
