1.4.2 Status of Collection Lawsuit

Published on NCLC Digital Library (https://library.nclc.org)
Date downloaded: September 24, 2020 9:20 pm

- Interview of the client, case selection, and litigation strategy—Chapter 2 [1], infra
- Lawsuit is filed and still pending:
  - Response to defects in the complaint—Chapter 3 [2], infra
  - Statute of limitations—§ 3.6 [3], infra
  - Creditor’s request for admissions—§ 4.2.2 [4], infra
  - Sufficiency of the creditor’s evidence—§ 4.2 [5], infra
  - Whether the debt buyer has proven it owns the debt—§ 4.3 [6], infra
  - Whether the creditor has proven the elements of its claim—Chapter 4 [7], infra
  - Consumer defenses—Chapter 5 [8], infra
  - Consumer counterclaims—§ 5.7 [9], infra
  - The creditor’s right to attorney fees, other collection expenses, or postjudgment interest—Chapter 6 [10], infra
- Judgment has been rendered for creditor—§ 1.4.3 [11], infra
- Judgment has been rendered for the consumer—Chapter 17 [12], infra

Source URL: https://library.nclc.org/ca/010402

Links
[1] https://library.nclc.org/nclc/link/CA.02
[3] https://library.nclc.org/nclc/link/CA.03.06
[4] https://library.nclc.org/nclc/link/CA.04.02.02
[5] https://library.nclc.org/nclc/link/CA.04.02
[8] https://library.nclc.org/nclc/link/CA.05
[9] https://library.nclc.org/nclc/link/CA.05.07
[10] https://library.nclc.org/nclc/link/CA.06
[12] https://library.nclc.org/nclc/link/CA.17