Has state opted out of federal bankruptcy exemptions? No.

Is opt out limited to residents or domiciliaries of the state? Not applicable.

Do state's exemptions have extraterritorial application?

Homestead: Yes. See In re Varanasi, 394 B.R. 430 (Bankr. S.D. Ohio 2008) (applying New Hampshire’s homestead exemption to Ohio residence; no unconstitutional taking, impairment of contract or denial of equal protection, even though New Hampshire’s homestead amount was ten times Ohio’s); In re Weza, 248 B.R. 470 (Bankr. D.N.H. 2000) (New Hampshire homestead may be claimed for property outside state because homestead statute does not limit exemption to property located in New Hampshire; homestead denied, however, because debtor did not currently reside on property).

Amount: Fifty times federal minimum wage is exempt. N.H. Rev. Stat. Ann. § 512.21(II).

Survival after payment/deposit: Not specified in exemption statute.

Waiver: Not specified in exemption statute.

Procedural requirements: Procedure available for establishing homestead, but apparently not prerequisite to existence of exemption.

Household goods: $3500 household furniture; beds and bedding; stove, utensils, refrigerator, heating unit; sewing machine; $400 provisions and fuel; one computer. N.H. Rev. Stat. Ann. §§ 511:2(II)–511:2(VI), and 511:2(XX).

Waiver: Not specified in exemption statute.

Bank accounts: Not specified in exemption statute.

Alimony, child support: Not specified in exemption statute.

Tax refunds: Not specified in exemption statute.

Survival after payment or deposit: Not specified in exemption statute, but note restrictive language in insurance and military pensions exemptions.
