Summary

Credit Cards, Payday Loans, Auto Finance, and Other Non-Mortgage Credit

Innovative Thinking and Precise Authority on Predatory Lending and Other Consumer Credit

- Credit CARD Act and Regulation Z changes drastically limit credit card practices
- Regulation of payday lending and attempts to evade state regulation
- Detailed chapter on auto finance, manufactured home and other installment loans
- Auto title pawns
- Rent-to-Own
- Structured settlements and cash for future income
- Refund anticipation loans
- Credit insurance
- Rate exportation, most favored lender, and federal banking agency preemption of state law
- What is interest
- Credit math
- Litigating usury cases
- Survey of federal and state credit statutes and consumer claims

Praise

"This series written by nationally recognized experts in consumer law combines perceptive analysis with a comprehensive collection of case references, statutory laws, regulations and practice hints. These volumes should become a standard reference set for attorneys advising and litigating in consumer and credit areas.” — ABA Journal

Related Titles

1. Truth in Lending [3]
2. Fair Debt Collection [4]
3. Fair Credit Reporting [5]
5. Repossessions [7]

Source URL: https://library.nclc.org/ccr

Links
[1] https://library.nclc.org/ccr/subscribe